GRANT.

"He is Free to Take His Own Course."

From a Washington special to the Nashville Banner of the 8th we learn:

The tone of all the editorials in the Democratic papers of this city, as to the policy President Grant will pursue when he relieves Mr. Johnson, occasions considerable comment in political circles, especially among Republicans. The Intelligencer of to-day, in a very elaborate editorial entitled "Gen. Grant is free to take his own course," argues that Grant is not indebted nor under obligations to the Republican party for his success; that they took him merely on account of his ability to save their party; that it is the duty of Grant to play a large part in public affairs, and to adopt a wise and conciliatory policy in which the Democratic party would sustain him. It further says that Grant's best course is to cut loose from the Radical wing of the Republican party at once, and by ignoring, in the formation of his cabinet, such Radicals as Sumner, Wade, Logan, Stanton and others, he will rally every conservative Republican and the entire Democratic party to his side, which would be able to sustain him through his administration.

WHAT IS LIKELY TO BE HIS POLICY.

From a Washington "special" to the New York Herald of the 8th:

The announcement of Gen. Grant that he will have no policy except the will of the people is accepted by the more moderate men here as an earnest that he will be steadfast and resolute in administering the affairs of the country with wisdom, temperance and enlightened spirit of justice that will tend finally to the healing of the wounds which the late fratricidal war and the bitterness that has grown out of it have inflicted upon the nation. The Democrats generally manifest a disposition to make a virtue of necessity and take the election of Grant as a blessing in disguise. So much so far as to say that the Republicans have selected a whip with which to receive their own castigation. Now, many actions of Gen. Grant since he has occupied a prominent position in the country are cheerfully recalled by Democrats, which, they claim, prove beyond all doubt his conservative principles. These points in Gen. Grant's public career have been totally ignored by both parties during the political campaign, because they are not of a character to convince Republicans of Grant's radicalism or to win votes from the Republican party by showing that he is sufficiently conservative to deserve even the support of Democrats. Thus many of the worthiest and most magnanimous acts of the President elect were suppressed, owing to his having been nominated by the Republican party, which, had he been running on the other ticket, would have redounded to his honor and aided him to achieve success.

From the Louisville Courier and Journal of Sunday:

General Grant, as President, will have to be one thing or another. He may talk about having no will or policy himself, but, if he has none, he will either have to espouse the policy of one of the two sections of his party, or, discarding both sections, either inaugurate a policy of his own or take that of the Democracy. We expect him to be the tool of Congress in whatever that body may choose to do. At any rate, he will have to act either openly outside of the constitution or openly outside of it. Even if he shall be as cowardly in civil office as he was brave in the field, his cowardice will avail him nothing. It will simply cause him to be the despised of all men. General Grant is probably intoxicated with power, and it is a great deal worse for the country that he should be intoxicated with that than with whisky.

* * * * *

Those who know him best assert that the General is possessed of an ardent desire to contribute all that is in his power towards softening the asperities of the present condition of affairs in the country, and that he will so exercise the prerogatives of his office as to deserve the respect of all parties.

WHO ARE LIKELY TO BE OF HIS CABINET.

A Washington special to the Cincinnati Commercial says:

The Washington politicians are already busy on the future Cabinet. They, of course, know nothing, as coming from the President elect, but they make up their stories on the political pressure which has been gradually forming in that direction ever since the October election.

The New York crowd here known as original Grant men, and representing A. T. Stewart, Pierrepont & Co., unite on John S. Cisco, of New York, for Secretary of the Treasury, Motley for Secretary of State, Sanford for Secretary of War, and Admiral Porter for Secretary of the Navy. The Pacific Coast politicians are going to demand the Secretaryship of the Interior.

HE SHOULD BE PRESIDENT OF THE WHOLE PEOPLE

From the Nashville Banner of Sunday:

In a table approximating to the real majorities in the several States in the recent election for President, the Cincinnati Enquirer estimates Grant's majority in white population at 540,000 and Seymour's at 872,000, showing a Democratic majority of nearly half a million of votes among the white population which has elected every President of the United States, and hitherto governed its policy. Will not Gen. Grant take notice of this fact? Will he not respect the voice of half a million majority of his fellow-citizens? He has said on a memorable occasion to President Johnson that the Chief Executive ought always to give way to the majority of the people if he had any policy in conflict with theirs. He is the choice of the electors, but was not of a majority of the people, as the Radical candidate. But, being President, those who opposed him recognize him as such, and expect him to be President of the whole people.

HOW HE STANDS ON THE NEGRO SUFFRAGE QUESTION.

Judge Pierrepont stated in a speech at New York a few days before the election, that he had had a conversation with Gen. Grant one day in Washington while he was Acting Secretary of War, "his feelings and sentiments were entirely opposed to negro suffrage," and Judge Pierrepont further represented Grant as saying:

"You will remember that early in the war, when I was in command of the West, I publicly stated that if the negroes had an insurrection I would hold my army in check until it was put down. But long before the war was over I should have been glad of a negro insurrection, and would have moved my army all the faster. What I want is the Union—the whole country returned to peace and submissive to the laws. I do not like universal negro suffrage now, but the freedmen ought to be protected, and if the only way to protect them in their helpless condition is to give them the suffrage, then I shall be in favor of letting them vote. I want the Union restored, and to have the South come back, obey the laws, and submit as good citizens, and if the future proves that they will not do it without negro suffrage, then I would give them negro suffrage."

This is very explicit as to Gen. Grant's position touching the negro question, and if he carries out the views expressed to Judge Pierrepont, he will not give satisfaction to the Radicals, whose only hope of retaining control of the South is in the negro. If Grant should favor intelligence as a basis for suffrage in the "reconstructed" States, he will call down upon him the anathemas of every carpet bagger and scalawag.

THE INDIANS.

A Steady Peace Policy Proposed by the Commissioners.

Mr. N. G. Taylor, of this State, Commissioner of Indian Affairs and President of the Indian Peace Commission, objects to the transfer of the Indian Bureau to the War Department for the following pertinent reasons:

1. Its adoption by Congress at once creates a necessity for maintaining a large standing army in the field.

2. Because our policy towards the Indian tribes is peace, and the proposed transfer is tantamount to perpetual war.

3. Because it is inhuman and unchristian, leaving the question of economy out of view, to destroy a whole race by such demoralization and disease as military government is sure to entail upon our tribes.

4 Because you have tried military management of Indian affairs and it has proven a failure, and must in the very nature of things, always prove a failure.

7. Because the conduct of Indian affairs is incompatible with the nature and objects of the military department.

8 Because the transfer will be offensive to the Indians. I have seen many tribes within twelve months and consulted with their chiefs and warriors publicly and privately, and without exception they have declared their unwillingness to have the military among them.

8 Because, in our report of 7th January last, this Commission, after full examination of the whole question, unanimously recommended that Indian affairs should be placed, not in the War Office, but upon the footing of an independent department.

PRESBYTERIAN.

Action of the Old School Presbyteries on Reunion.

1. The following Presbyteries have voted approving the basis of reunion of the Joint committee, without giving any expression in regard to any amendment. Troy, Albany, Southern Minnesota—3.

2. The following have approved the basis and have voted in favor of amending it by excluding the Smith and Gurley amendments: Cincinnati, White Water, Des Moines, Madison, New Albany, Muncie, Allegheny City, Luzerne, Topeka, Hocking, Oxford, Vinton, Fort Dodge, Mohawk, Connecticut, Lafayette, Indianapolis, Marion, Wooster, Crawfordsville, Findlay, Southwest, Minnesota, Erie, Rock River, Palestine, Sidney, Steubenville, Columbus, Highland, Nashville, Palmyra, Rariton—32.

3. The following have approved of the basis, except the first article, and have voted to approve it, if amended, by striking out the Smith and Gurley amendments:

Central Philadelphia, Winnebago, Chippewa, Fairfield, Peoria, Saugamon, Clarion, Philadelphia 2d, Schuyler, Ohio, Washington, Saltsburg, St. Clairsville, Redstone, Cedarville, St. Paul, Logansport, Chicago, Madison, Miami River, Miami, Lakes, Dubuque, Cedar, Bloomington, New York 2d, New York, Carlisle, Passaic—29.

4. The following have voted, disapproving the basis, without approving any of its articles, but have voted in favor of reunion upon the standards pure and simple. All these, it is believed, are ready for union on the basis, if overtured; but they have not so voted:

Zanesville, Vincennes, Nassau, West Jersey, Newton, Long Island, Fort Wayne, Blairsville, Upper Missouri, North River, Milwaukee—12.

5. The following have voted disapproving the basis, some of them in such terms as to show that they are opposed to reunion, and others claiming to be in favor of it, but failing to state their views with sufficient plainness to justify their enrollment with any other class. None of them definitely approve any part of the basis, or express readiness for union on the standards, without qualification or understanding. Some object to the basis "chiefly because of the first article," other "preferring union upon the standards," but do not declare their readiness for it, not being satisfied that the two churches agree in the rule of subscriptions:

Baltimore, Genessee River, Ebenezer, New Brunswick, Philadelphia, New Castle, Lewes, West Lexington, Paducah, Potosi, Potomac, Hudson, Donegal, Huntington, Louisville—15.

A GOOD SUGGESTION.

Proposed Winter Excursion Parties from the North to the South.

From the Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle & Sentinel.]

We published, a few days since, a letter of inquiry respecting the price of lands, character of productions, etc., etc., from a gentleman of Virginia. We have before us to-day letters from parties personally unknown to us, residing in the State of Ohio and Iowa making similar inquiries. The Hagerstown (Md.) Mail thus announces a contemplated excursion of a party from that section:

"About the 18th of November a party of gentlemen contemplate a second excursion to Virginia and the South. All who wish to join the party and report the fact at the Mail office prior to the 10th of November, will be furnished half-fare railroad tickets for the excursion. Hotel and other accommodations have been guaranteed at reduced rates."

A letter from an avowed Republican of Cincinnati, to one of our citizens, has been shown us, in which the following passage occurs: "There is growing disposition to look Southward for trade, and a strong inclination to sell lands at the prevailing high prices here, and invest in the cheap lands of the South. There are two restraints. The first is the prevailing idea of want of safety and security which arises out of the newspaper stories of murder and assassination and general lawlessness, which you and I know are either altogether false or greatly exaggerated for political purposes. The second is the expensiveness of the trip, as compared with our accustomed rates. I am fully persuaded that could winter excursion tickets be arranged for two or three months this winter, on the main lines which would give the traveler an opportunity of seeing the country, by stopping at such points of interest as might attract him, it would do more to restore harmony and good feeling between these sections than Grant's election."

Our citizens will recollect that Judge Carleton, of Indiana, frankly told the citizens of Augusta that the great need between the West and the South was intercourse. That he idea of a Southerner which prevailed, was that he was something after the order of a Pandour, or an Italian Carbonari; that this idea was, in a great measure, derived from partisan pictorial prints; and that he himself was seriously warned against undertaking the trip, Democratic Elector, as he was; and that he was sure that, could the people of Georgia as he had done since he had entered the State, he was quite sure there would not be found a single Republican who would indorse the Reconstruction measures.

We have grouped together these facts to direct public attention to them, to meet as far as possible this "growing disposition" for emigration and travel southward. So soon as the election is over it would seem reasonable that these lying misrepresentations about Ku-klux Klans and murders, and assassinations should cease, because they can be no longer used as political thunder, and we have no doubt that our railroad authorities will further conform to the demands of the times by extending the system (already in operation from Augusta northward) of interchangeable excursion tickets—good by any route.

FOR THRIFTY PEOPLE.

Economy as Advised by Jenny June.

Warm, durable, economical winter suits are made of English water-proof cloth, or linsey, trimmed with a broad, heavily corded black woolen band, called "Hercules" braid; a good, useful style in which to make them, is with a single skirt, walking length and lined, a straight Hungarian pelisse, lined to the waist with Canton flannel, belted in and ornamented upon the sides with a single wide military sash and edged with fringe. A pelerine cape may be added to the pelisse for warmth, lined with flannel, in which case an ordinary lining will be sufficient for the waist of the peitsse. Scotch linsey and English water-proof range from $1 to $2 per yard; at the latter price water-proof cloth of the best style and quality is a yard and a half wide, and six or seven yards make a suit. Hercules braid is from $1 to $2 and $3 per dozen yards, according to width. The Scotch poplin, in the scarlet and blue and green checks, are very nice for house dresses, wearing clean, and always looking well and lady-like. It is, indeed, nearly impossible to wear them out; they always make over useful for children. The skirts of these dresses need no trimming; make them long at the back and full, putting the whole width of the back breadths in large gathers, add to the belt a rosette back and front, made of rather large leaves, bound with black velvet; trim the waist square with black velvet and chenille fringe if liked, and make leaf rosettes for the top of the sleeves, or the body may be left open in front, bordered with velvet and worn with a chemisette. Poplin Veteour a heavily corded fabric, makes a very handsome dress—quite as handsome as silk. It is $2 25, and is most fashionable in peril gray garnet, crimson and black. A winter cloak or cloth should be made up as a pelisse with a cape, or as a round cloak, composed of two or three capes. The fur boa for the neck is properly adapted to these designs in cloaks. With the present style of dress warmer underclothing is required, and this must not be lost sight of. Long Balbriggan hose, knit, or Canton flannel drawers, warm flannel underskirt, and a "Boulevard" over a very small hoop will be found necessary to most ladies, especially those living in the country; and in addition, high lined boots, and possibly knit merino undershirts. Make the underclothing warm, at any rate.

MANHOOD SUFFRAGE.

What the Press Has to Say About It.

From the Louisville Courier and Journal of Sunday, we clip the following:

Both Iowa and Minnesota have adopted negro suffrage. No doubt negro suffrage is good enough for communities where the negroes are as good as the white people. But would the whites of the United States have believed that abomination if the negroes were a tenth part as numerous there as they are in the South? Would they favor it in their own States but for the fact that by doing so they think that they can with the more plausibility urge its enforcement in the South by Federal power?

We hope that the day is at hand when the negroes of the South will fall, like swarms of grasshoppers or clouds of seventeen-year locusts, every State that voluntarily adopts negro suffrage.

From the Bolivar (Tenn.) Bulletin, of the 7th, we take this paragraph from an article on the election:

There is no excuse. One hundred and forty-six negroes in this neighborhood belong to the Loyal League, every one of whom can be ferreted out—the most of them already are known—and should be made to feel what it is to encourage a common thief in opposition to a gentleman. They have taken the advice of such men as Prosser and Smith; let them remain with their idols and encourage only the few honest ones who did what they could to ward off the hardships which Radicalism has and intends to force upon us as a people. The white man who refuses to do this will fail to do his duty, and is but little, if any, better than a Loyal League slave himself. For our part, our hands are clean of pretense or pandering, and shall ever remain so. If there is a white man in this community who desires to harbor a viper that will turn upon him and sting him to death, let him whistle to the wind and give employment to Loyal Leaguers. We are satisfied that all will be well that ends well. Are you?

From the St. Louis Times, of Sunday.]

The Memphis Avalanche, hitherto deemed the especial organ of the antipodes of Greeley and Wendell Phillips, now declares for universal suffrage, and urges "upon the Democratic party the necessity of cultivating the confidence of the colored citizens." The wisdom of this policy, in a narrow, partisan sense, is unquestionable. Democratic leaders may out-general their Radical rivals, and the negro may become the pliant tool of a new class of political masters. But the inquiry remains to be solved whether the country's good will be promoted. If there had been fewer ignorant, unworthy votes in 1860 and '61, the South and the Union would have been spared multiplied calamities. Since negro suffrage in Tennessee is a fixed fact, and the policy is incorporated in the laws of the State and habits of the negro race, there might be valid reason for refusal to "imparadise suffrage." Greeley has never demanded more. The exponent of extreme Southern opinions and prejudices goes a bowshot beyond the Tribune; and, if its teachings be approved, the time may soon come when the eight hundred thousand negro voters of the South, thoroughly incorporated with the Democratic party, will become more terrible in the eyes of Radicalism than the foreign vote of New York city.

This is not a question of partisanship. In importance it rises above all questions affecting the triumph or defeat of party leaders. The accession of the whole body of Southern blacks to the ballot box is the overthrow of civilization in States in which negroes either constitute a majority of voters or wield the balance of power. The more depraved, vulgar and ignorant the candidate, the more certain his election. The worst men in the South will hold undisputed sway. These facts are illustrated every where in Tennessee. The very candidate for Congress, in the Memphis district, who contests the palm with Judge Bledsoe, is one W. J. Smith—owes his partial success solely to blacks. There is no epithet in the vocabulary of Billingsgate which the Avalanche has not applied to this negro deity, Smith. In truth, opposition to negro suffrage is not an emanation from selfishness, or from hatred to blacks. It does not originate in hostility to Northern adventurers in the South. It is deemed by every good citizen, who would promote the best interests of society, fatal to good government. That negro suffrage has given Tennessee the worst possible class of negroes is a fact which no one will deny. It happens, to-day, that these rulers are Radicals. If Democracy espouse the negro's cause, the next masters of the State, in like manner, will owe potency to savages, and though they be Democrats, will accurately represent their constituents in morals, intelligence and capacity.

From the Paris (Tenn.) Weekly Intelligencer of Saturday.]

* * * * *

The States being then beyond the clutches of Congress, and with a clear Democratic majority, as shown by the returns of the late election, the conclusion is inevitable that the end of the carpet-bag and scalawag rule of the South is near at hand, and reconstruction, although as an issue it has been triumphant, is to all practical purposes a most miserable failure. There is but one chance for a contrary result and the danger lies in the present Legislatures of those States. We are not advised as to any of their powers under their mock Constitutions, least of all are we acquainted with the extent of their jurisdiction over the question of suffrage. It may be small, or great and even absolute. If the latter, by prescribing new qualification for voters and making, as in this State, loyalty the test, the present system of misrule may be continued indefinitely. But will they dare do this? If so, they will Mexicanize the South, that's all.

* * * * *

As we before said, these evils are contingent on the power of the present Southern Legislatures to regulate the elective franchise and the abuse of that power in the interests of the negroes, scalawags and other Radical cattle. They may have no such power, and if having it, may not dare exercise it. The more likely view, then, is the one first given, and which forbodes the early demise of the vilest scheme that ever sprung from the devilish ingenuity of man for strictly partisan purposes.

METHODISM.

What the Southern Methodist Church is Doing for the Colored People.

From the Nashville Union and American.]

Bishop McTyeire, last week, organized at Hopkinsville, Kentucky, a Conference for the colored people of that State in connection with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

Aside from its direct religious bearings, this movement is of practical and evident interest to the Southern people. We are glad to see that the Methodist Church, which before the war had done so great a work in evangelizing the colored people, and had over two hundred thousand of them in church membership, is not disposed to turn them over to the wild vagaries of superstition, or to the equally hurtful leadership of carpet-baggers—a race infesting the church as well as the State.

We trust that other denominations of Christians in the South will not remit the negro to the fender meroies of those, who care not for his soul while he had no vote; but of late have shown a wonderful interest in "the man and brother." Religion and politics don't mix any better in a colored than in a white church. Much of the hostility of races that has browed and troubled us, comes from these so-called religious teachers. The political value of the negro has stirred their zeal, and through ecclesiastical organization they have embroiled him with his old neighbors and true friends, and filled him with hate instead of charity.

The Methodist Church, we learn, has adopted a plan of gathering all her colored membership into separate pastorates and conferences, and setting them up with a complete organism, in sympathy and friendly co-operation with the white church, and differing only in color and jurisdiction. We are glad to learn that a beginning has been made in Tennessee.

Gen. Forrest vs. Kilpatrick.

From the Louisville Courier and Journal.]

The Radical editors of the North allege that Gen. Kilpatrick cannot properly accept Gen. Forrest's polite invitation, the latter not being his equal socially. That's laughable. There is not in Tennessee a respectable family circle to which Gen. Forrest would not be warmly welcomed, while there is not one to which Kilpatrick could gain admission, or to which, if he could get into it, he wouldn't probably, as in times past, introduce a courtesan in the dress and character of an orderly.

THE MISSISSIPPI RIVER RAILROAD.

We learn from the State Gazette of Dyersburg, that work has been commenced on the Mississippi River Railroad in Obion county, and that the friends of the enterprise in Tipton as well as Shelby counties are all actively engaged in maturing plans by which, at an early day, the whole route will be put under contract. This is good news.

THE FRANCHISE.

We ask in the interest of peace, of good government, of prosperity, of social security and the honor of Tennessee, that the Legislature, now in session, promptly remove the disabilities under which a majority of the white people of the State are laboring. Coming now, upon the heels of the victory of the Republican party, such an act of magnanimity would be in keeping with the pretensions to justice of the Conservative Republicans of Tennessee. Such an act would be hailed as the seal to that assurance of peace that his party intended to convey by the election of Gen. GRANT to the Presidency; it will prevent a recurrence of the disorders that have distracted the industry of the State and divided the affectionate regard that our people should feel for the land where their homes are and where all their earthly hopes are centered. It will heal the wounds of the war, it will prove an impetus to the general good more potent than any wealth or capital can confer, and will lift all hearts in hope and love, and compel them, willing worshippers, around a common altar. Enfranchise your neighbors, gentlemen of the Legislature, and thereby entitle yourselves to the lasting remembrance of your countrymen, and achieve a victory more solid, more enduring than any that party can confer.

MEMPHIS, OKOLONA AND SELMA RAILROAD.

By special telegram from Okolona last evening, we learn that the new Board of Directors of the above road completed the organization of their company by the election of Gen. FORREST President, and Mr. W. R. MOORE, of this city, Vice-President. This we hope will be agreeable news to all the friends of this much-needed enterprise. Gen. FORREST, by his energy, business tact, and the exercise of his indomitable will power in favor of the road, has fairly earned the Presidency of it. He will have, we trust, the best efforts of our public men, capitalists, and the whole community with him. He is emphatically a worker, and is just the man for the place. He will not allow the grass to grow under his feet; and those who hope to enjoy positions under him will have to be equal to their places. In his efforts he will have the hearty assistance and co-operation of Mr. MOORE, who, by the thoroughness with which he has prosecuted all undertakings heretofore committed to him, has achieved an enviable notoriety as a business man. In their persons these gentlemen unite the Democratic and Republican parties, so that even in a political sense (should there be any narrow enough to consider the result from that stand-point), President FORREST and Vice-President MOORE should satisfy the most exacting. We congratulate them both, and the Company on securing them.

A GOOD SUGGESTION FOR RAILROAD MEN.

On our first page to-day we publish an article from the Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle and Sentinel, in which it is proposed to the railroad companies of the South to issue half-fare excursion tickets, good for the winter months, on any of their roads, so that parties from the North who desire to "look around" in the South, may be enabled to do so at as small an outlay of money as is possible. We think the plan not only a good one, but entirely feasible, if rival routes will but, in behalf of so good a cause, lay aside their jealousies and make common concessions.

As a rule, travel in the South is much more expensive than in the North; if railroad fare is reduced as proposed, it will be cheaper, and the intending emigrant will thus have the first incentive for movement South realized for him. This accomplished, the rest will follow. Once here, the Northern man or European will not be long in making up his mind. He will be struck by our climate, our soil and our productions. Mingling with our people, he will find them anything but the FURIEOSO and Captain KIDD they have been represented by a partisan press, embittered against us by reason of our opposition to the few who have come amongst us for fat offices.

Will the railroads not help in this good work to the extent asked? We hope so. And we hope they will call a Convention of General Agents at once, say at Memphis, and empower such Convention to make up a schedule of rates of which travelers from the North can avail themselves in their desire to locate or help us settle and improve our section. What will you do, gentlemen of the railroads? Let the people know through the APPEAL.

RESPONSE TO THE AVALANCHE.

The Avalanche, as it progresses with the consideration of what it calls its own platform of "universal suffrage, equality and justice," becomes more and more enamored of it. Like all new converts, too, it is impatient of any successful contradiction of it's creed.

In response to our proposition to adjourn a controversy, during which we have, again and again, reiterated our opposition to this platform of our neighbor, it insists upon continuing it "until the friends of liberty, political equality and justice have triumphed in Tennessee over despotism, inequality and injustice."

By the friends of liberty, we take it our neighbor means the Democratic party; by the friends of political equality (there being no unequals but the negroes in Tennessee) we presume it means the Radical party, (for the Democracy are upon the record against political or any other equality with the negro); by the friends of justice, we will also presume it means all men, of whatever party, who desire to do unto others as they wish others to do unto them.

As we before reiterated, we are willing to accord justice to the negro and liberty, but we will not pledge ourselves to political equality with him, not even to secure what we to-day ask the Legislature to accord to the white intelligence of the State. And in thus pronouncing ourselves, we believe that we express the sentiments of the Democratic party; nay more, that we express the sentiments of ninety-nine out of every hundred white men in Tennessee.

We believe that most of the white people of the State have made up their minds exactly as the APPEAL expresses itself, to-wit: that so long as Radical tyranny enforces negro suffrage upon the Southern States we will submit to it and use it to all the advantage we can by honorable means, but we will not engraft it upon our political creed, nor commit ourselves to the monstrous doctrines of political equality with the imbruted negro masses, who never can be sufficiently elevated in the scale of humanity to vote intelligently and independently, or be safely entrusted with a share in the government of the country. This is the "inglorious retreat" to which the APPEAL betakes itself.

THE LITTLE ROCK RAILROAD.

An election for a new Board of Directors for the Little Rock Railroad was held on Monday last, which resulted in the election of Messrs. R. C. BRINCKLEY, MILES OWEN and H. B. EDMONDSON, of this city, and Messrs. A. McDONALD and J. LEWIS, of Arkansas.

Of these, Messrs. BRINCKLEY and EDMONDSON only were of the old Board, the others are new to the enterprise, but, it is believed by its friends, will bring to bear upon the early completion of the road and its general interests an amount of exertion, good counsel and practical effort that will inure to the profit of the stockholders, the people along the line and the citizens of Little Rock and Memphis.

To insure this, it should be the first care of this Board promptly to put under contract every mile of the unfinished portion of the road, order the immediate construction of good, reliable bridges, order additional engines and cars for the increased traffic that is sure to follow the construction of it—in a word, to imitate the rapidity of the Pacific Road; but, unlike it, to make a sure foundation for rapid travel.

We see nothing in the way of such effective work. All the money that is needed, and, we believe, more, will be furnished by Arkansas, under the recently indorsed "General Railroad Act," so that all that is wanted is the push, skill and energy that money will always command. If the Board will place at the disposal of Superintendent ROBERTSON the necessary means, under the guidance of the President, (whom we presume will be Mr. BRINCKLEY), we have little doubt that construction will keep pace with public desire, and as we predicted a few days since, Memphis merchants will be able next July to visit Little Rock by through trains. So mote it be.

By Telegraph.

THE EXCITEMENT IN TIPTON COUNTY.

Special Dispatch to Memphis Appeal.]

MASON'S DEPOT, Tenn., November 10. General Smith Beecher, Judge Waldran, and others, unknown to me, are here taking depositions of colored people as to how they voted in the election. Fully one thousand negroes have testified. A great many living in Fayette county swore they lived in this county. Great excitement prevailed last night and this morning. All quiet at this time. A great many negroes are armed. A great many ladies were so much alarmed that they left on this morning's train.

D. C. SLAUGHTER, Sheriff.

MEMPHIS AND SELMA R. R.

Special Dispatch to the Appeal.

OKOLONA, Miss., November 10.—The subscribers to the Selma and Memphis Railroad, met here to-day and organized, with Gen. Forrest for President and Col. Wm. R. Moore Vice President.

NASHVILLE.

NASHVILLE, November 10.—Governor Brownlow's message was read in the Senate to-day. After congratulating the country upon the election of Grant and Colfax, and the bountiful harvest which has rewarded the husbandman, he recommends the sale of the six railroads now in the hands of receivers appointed by him on behalf the State, and the proceeds to be applied to the reduction of the State debt. He also recommends that no further aid be given to railroads except those which he mentions, in which the State has large interests, it would lose if aid should be denied them.

He recommends that measures be adopted to wind up the Bank of Tennessee forthwith. In regard to the extension of the elective franchise, he suggests that there should be a discrimination exercised concerning those who were in rebellion. They are not all alike culpable for the past, nor untrustworthy for the future; for those who were involuntarily drawn into the service of the rebellion, and since its utter failure have given evidence that they accept the result in good faith, that they are good citizens, quiet and law-abiding—that they have strictly observed their parole; that they will not use political power to proscribe and degrade those whom the war has emancipated and invested with the right of citizens. For disfranchised persons of this description the franchise might safely, and, therefore, wisely be extended. The extension should, however, be applied with suitable guards and checks, that advantage could not be taken of its liberality, to the damage and honor of the State. The other class who still remain hostile to the government, he thinks, should remain disfranchised for an indefinite period. He also recommends an increase of the salaries of Governor and Judiciary, and makes various recommendations relative to insuring the hospital, penitentiary, etc.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, November 10.—The Senate was called to order at noon by President Wade—Senators Corbett, Horton, Morgan and Wright also present. After prayer by the Chaplain, the journal of the last meeting and the concurrent resolutions of July 21st were read, and no objection being made, the President pro tem. declared the Senate adjourned until the 7th of December.

HOUSE.

Colfax of Indiana, Kelly of Indiana, O'Neil of Pennsylvania, Kellogg of Alabama, Dewees of North Carolina, Lincoln of Indiana, Stewart of New York, and Ingersoll of Illinois were the only members present.

Dickey, successor of Thaddeus Stevens, was present, but did not qualify.

After similar proceedings to those in the Senate, the House adjourned till December.

NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, November 10.—An export bonded warehouse, under the new revenue law, has been established at this port.

The Odd Fellows were out in procession in strong force to-day, on the occasion of the dedication of the new hall of the Order. The ceremonies were conducted by the Grand officers of the body, making a fine display, notwithstanding the unpleasant weather.

ALBANY.

ALBANY, N. Y., November 10.—The arrival of Hon. John T. Hoffman and wife at Congress Hall was made the occasion of a complimentary serenade to him last evening by the Jackson Guards.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, November 10.—Gen. Kilpatrick had an interview yesterday with President Johnson, Gen. Grant and Secretaries Seward, Schofield, Welles and McCulloch, and left here last night for his home in New Jersey. Having received an extension of his leave of absence from Chili, he has accepted an invitation to deliver an oration on the occasion of the reunion of the veterans of New Hampshire, on the 8th of January.

WASHINGTON, November 10.—The Commissioners of Revenue have decided that dealers in liquor on making returns of distilled spirits on hand are required to draw off into regular barrels what at the time may be in their stand casks in order that it may be guaged and stamped.

Gen. Grant declined to-day a public demonstration in his honor tendered by the various associations of this city.

This afternoon a committee of delegates from the Sailors' and Soldiers' Republican Committee, officers of the Boys in Blue, the President of the Central Grant Club, and the Mayor of Washington, together with Aldermen and other prominent citizens, called on Gen. Grant by appointment. The object of the visit is stated in the following address of the Mayor:

Gen. Grant: In behalf of the citizens of the Republican organizations of this city, called to tender their hearty congratulations on the result of the election, and make known to you their wishes that they be permitted to attest their feelings of happiness and joy by a proper public demonstration, welcoming the President elect to the capital of the nation, as they were deprived of that pleasure on your arrival here, by a sort of flank movement by which you stole a march upon our people. All indulge in the hope that you will now accede to their request and name the time and place that will be most agreeable to you for such demonstration.

Gen. Grant responded as follows:

I am glad to meet and receive your congratulations, but I hope you will spare me any public demonstration. I live in this city, and like to avoid demonstrations here as elsewhere, and with my consent there cannot be any. I am always ready to meet such gentlemen as may call on me at my office, any time, without public display or demonstration. This would be much more agreeable to me, and I hope it will be agreeable to you.

The Mayor replied: We shall certainly study your pleasure in the matter.

Gen. Grant then said: I am not unmindful of the feeling intended by a public demonstration, and you must take this for granted. (Laughter.) The company then retired.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, November 10.—The man John Reilly, arrested on suspicion of murdering his wife, on Sunday night, was held, though he protests she fell while drunk, striking her head against a table.

The Times' Charleston special says: Gov. Scott, accompanied by Gen. Sawyer and a deputation of prominent citizens, start for New York this morning, with the view of advancing the financial interests of the State, and enlisting Northern capital to secure the speedy completion of the Blue Ridge railroad, which is the missing link in a continuous railroad line between Charleston and Cincinnati.

The World has a detailed account of a filibustering expedition alleged to be fitting out in the United States for Cuba. It says 2500 men are going from New York, 800 from Boston, 3000 from New Orleans and a detachment from Mobile. The leaders are said to be Gen. Harry Hayes, C. F. Henningsen, Col. G. W. Gibbons and Col. Jas. Kerrington. Recruiting offices are opened, and forty-seven commissions for officers issued. The whole story wears the look of a canard.

A locomotive is reported to have exploded on the Harlem Railroad last night, blowing five cars to pieces and injuring several persons.

In Mayor Hoffman's remarks at Albany last evening, he said that he would say to his Republican friends that inasmuch as they had been defeated by 30,000 majority, it would be best for them to peacefully accept the result. It had been the problem of Democrats for many times in the past.

It is stated on good authority that the Hon. John A. Griswold will not consent to have his name used as a candidate for United States Senator.

Admiral Farragut came quietly up to the city this morning and maintains strict privacy.

Gov. Geary, of Pennsylvania, wrote a letter that he is not a candidate for the United States Senate.

Gens. Rosecrans and Longstreet sailed to-day for Mexico.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, November 10.—The Times has an editorial article giving the basis of the settlement and present status of questions at issue between the United States and Great Britain. A mixed commission, consisting of two members from each nation, will be appointed to adjudge all questions arising since 1853, the date of the last commission.

England's responsibility in the matter of the Alabama claims will be referred to Prussia for arbitration. If the decision is in favor of America the commission will then investigate the claims.

America has withdrawn the question of the recognition of the Southern States by Great Britain during the war.

The San Juan business will be referred to the President of Switzerland for arbitration.

WEATHER AND RIVERS.

NEW ORLEANS, November 10.—Departed, this morning, the Hamburg steamer Saxonia.

ST LOUIS, November 10.—Departed—City of Cairo. River risen one foot. The Upper Mississippi, Illinois and Missouri are all booming, and side streams pouring out freshets.

PITTSBURG, November 10.—Weather cloudy and wet. River five feet eight inches, with indications of a rise.

LOUISVILLE, November 10.—River stationary. Six and a half feet water in the canal. Weather clear and cold.

HALIFAX.

HALIFAX, November 10.—Hon. James Howe publishes another letter, in which he announces he has reached the conclusion that it is useless to continue the struggle for the repeal. He also says he is in correspondence with the Dominion Government, but omits to state the character of the correspondence. The letter creates great excitement here. The Unionists predict a collapse in the repeal movement, and the Anti-Unionists denounce Howe in unmeasured terms.

FINE HORSES FOR SALE.—A very fine lot of horses are now being offered for sale at Overton stables. The public should go round and examine them before buying elsewhere. We can assure you a good trade, and the finest turnout in the city.

SOUTHERN HOTEL.—On account of the large country patronage from DeSoto, Panola, Marshall and Tallahatchie counties, planters and their friends, also travelers by railroads and steamboats, we cannot take city boarders until further notice. We thank the numerous guests of the hotel for their liberal patronage. Rates reduced from $3 50 to $2 50 per day. [5t] J. S. SMITH & Co.

BOOK NOTICES.—We would be obliged to our friends if they would not bother us with book notices and reviews, written by themselves, of books that we, perhaps, have never seen. We are unwilling to father, in the first place, what is generally thus written, and besides, a whole edition of a "yellow covered" novel is scarcely worth a quarter of a column in a first class daily newspaper.

MASON'S DEPOT.—By a reference to our telegraphic column it will be seen that those "dark lanterns of anti-christ," those spirits of evil, Barbour Lewis and Wm. J. Smith, are already at their hellish work of arraying the white man and negro against each other in deadly conflict. As soon as Gen. Granger heard of the troubles out at Mason's he sent fifty men thither. There has been no telegraphic communication with that point since the dispatches published this morning were received. It is supposed that the operator has been driven away by the negroes. We shall know to-day.

110 LEONARD STREET,
NEW YORK, October 15, 1867.

Dear Sir: It is with much pleasure that I say to you that I consider the Plantation Bitters of untold value. In the fall of 1867 I was taken with chills and fever, with the most severe pains in my chest and head. It was with great difficulty that I could breathe. My lungs were greatly distressed, and there was severe pain in my right side, by spells. I could hardly get up from my bed. I called a Doctor, who attended me all winter without the least benefit. About the first of August I commenced using your Plantation Bitters—a wine glass full three times a day—and have used it most of the time since, and I am now well and strong, able to do all my own work, and the care of a large family.

Yours, etc., SUSAN WILSON.

THE THEATER.—The Willow Copse drew a large and appreciative audience last night, and the play was well put upon the stage. Mr. Couldock, whose specialty this play is, was very affecting, and as "Luke Fielding," frequently drew tears from his audience. The two last acts were equal to anything of the kind we have ever witnessed, in the deep pathos of misery and feeling portrayed by the old father, whose mind was crazed by the supposed disgrace of his darling child, and at the end of each act Mr. Couldock was called before the curtain. Miss Couldock supported her father very creditably, while Mrs. Clise and Mr. McWade added largely to the pleasure of the evening, by their inimitable delineations of "Meg" and Augustus." The play to-night will be Chimney Corner, and we hope that the house will be equally as well filled as last night. We would call the attention of male frequenters of our theater, to the disagreeable habit some of them have fallen into of walking almost as heavily as though they were shod with iron, just at the most interesting part of an act, and would suggest that if gentlemen can't take "straight whisky" and return to their seats previous to the rising of the curtain, that they at least have some regard to the sensibilities of others. "Tittering" among young ladies is not pretty, though some who were present last night, no doubt, thought so. Want of sense is nowhere so noticeable as in a public assemblage and is nowhere more disgusting.

THE RACES.

Second Day on the Track.

Splendid Sport.

The rain, which set in after nightfall on Monday evening, ceased before the dawning of yesterday morning, and the sun rose as clear and beautiful as any one could wish. The wind had gotten around to the north-northwest, meantime, and the air was very like winter.

The splendid time made and elegant races of Monday, stirred up the community generally, and there was quite a large attendance upon the course yesterday evening, there being four or five hundred persons in the various stands. We were sorry to observe, however, so very few ladies in attendance, and are at a complete loss to know what to attribute their absence. It is certainly not from the lack of good accommodations, or the keeping of improper persons out of the stand. We hope that they may see fit to honor and grace the track during the remaining days with their presence in large numbers. We can assure each and every one that they will not be brought in contact with any persons whom they would be ashamed to meet in their own parlors.

FIRST RACE.

The betting in this and subsequent races, against time, was very cautious and guarded, on account of the condition of the track—the rain having made it very heavy. The stake was the Saloon Purse of $300, mile heats, free for all ages. The entries were as follows:

West & Vaughan enters ch f Phœnix Bell, four years old, by Australian; dam by Glencoe. Colors—Red and Green.

James Conlisk enters b h Larkin, five years old, by Lexington, out of Magenta. Colors—Blue and Blue, Orange sash.

In getting off in the first heat, Phœnix Bell took the lead, which position he maintained up to the half mile post, where Larkin began to draw ahead, and before they reached the home stretch he had passed Bell, and was a length ahead at the turn. The betting, meanwhile, being heavily in favor of Larkin, ten to one being freely offered, without any takers. On crossing the string Larkin was a length ahead, and did not seem to have exerted himself in the slightest. Time 2:00½.

SECOND HEAT.

Phœnix Bell again took the lead, crossing the string about a length ahead of his competitor, but within twenty-five yards Larkin sprang ahead and took the lead by about a length and a half. The betting from the start was largely in favor of Larkin, fifty dollars to two being offered without any takers. So sanguine were Larkin's friends that one of them offered to bet "ten dollars to an apple"—a bet which was taken by a newspaper man, and never paid, of course. On passing the string Larkin was about a length ahead, winning the heat and race. Time, 2:07.

SUMMARY.

James Conlisk's b h. Larkin 1 1
West & Vaughan's ch. f Phœnix Bell..... 2 2
Time, 2:00½, 2:07.

SECOND RACE.

This race was for the Railroad Purse of $500, two mile heats, free for all ages. The entries were as follows—the horses starting in the order in which they are named—Gilroy having the pole:

James Conlisk enters b h Gilroy, six years old, by Lexington; dam Magnolia, by Imported Glencoe. Colors—Blue and Blue, Orange sash.

West & Vaughan enter b m Woodford Belle, four years old, by Lexington; dam Amanda Townsend, by Imported Glencoe. Colors—Red and Green.

S. Leonard enters ch h Rochester, by Imported Bonnie Scotland, dam Lady Lancaster. Colors—Red and White.

Peter Mitchell enters b h Pat Cleburne, five years old, by Hiawatha; dam Imported Emu. Colors—Red and Red.

In the pool-selling Gilroy was largely the favorite, and in betting long odds were offered on him, which, we are bound to say, found plenty of takers. Considerable excitement was also raised this race, especially in the first heat, in betting on the time; few if any believing that any of the horses would be able to come up to previous time, with the present condition of the track.

At the tap the horses got off well together, Pat Cleburne taking the lead, Gilroy next, Woodford Belle and Rochester following neck and neck. At the first quarter Woodford Belle, leaving Rochester, drew ahead and lapped Gilroy, who, without seeming to try, was lessening the distance between his and Pat Cleburne's nose. At the half Gilroy drew ahead, and in this position, Gilroy first, Pat Cleburne second, Woodford Belle and Rochester neck and neck about a length behind, until they come to the fourth quarter, where the only change that was made was by Gilroy shooting ahead and passing the string a length ahead, Woodford Belle second, Rochester third, and Pat Cleburne last. In this position they started around the second time, having made the first mile in 2:04½. No perceptible change was made in their position until the home stretch was reached, when Gilroy gained about a length, coming under the string about two lengths ahead, Rochester second, Woodford Belle third, and Pat Cleburne fourth. Time, 4:09.

SECOND HEAT.

The horses got off pretty much in the same order as in the previous heat, Cleburne leading, Gilroy next, Woodford Belle third and Rochester fourth. At the first half mile they were all in a bunch, and they passed the stand on the second round, all within three lengths of each other, Gilroy leading, Cleburne second, Rochester third, and Woodford Belle fourth. But little change was made in the position of the horses the second time round, Gilroy coming in three or four lengths ahead, winning the heat and race, Cleburne second, Rochester third, and Woodford Belle fourth. Time, 4:10.

SUMMARY.

James Conlisk's b. h. Gilroy..... 1 1
West & Vaughan's b. m. Woodford Belle..... 2 4
Leonard's ch. h. Rochester..... 2 3
Mitchell's b. h. Pat Cleburne..... 4 2
Time—2:04, 4:09.

THIRD RACE.

This was for the "Wine Stake," $100; entrance money to second horse. Mile heats, free to all.

West & Vaughan enter br g Bee Farris, three years old by Melbourne; dam by Imported Glencoe. Colors—Red and Green.

E. Smith enters br f Queen of the West, by Imported Bonnie Scotland; dam A la mode. Color—White and Blue.

A. Barnes enters chemisette, three years old, by Jim Rodgers; dam Angeline, by Alvia. Colors—Red and Green.

FIRST HEAT.

The horses got off rather scattering, Bee Farris leading, Queen of the West second, and Chemisette third. At the half post, Chemisette first lapped, and then passed her competitors, and on the home stretch left them by a length. When near the distance stand Farris gained a little, and on crossing the line Chemisette led by only half a length, winning the heat in 1:56½, Farris being second, and Queen of the West third.

SECOND HEAT.

Queen of the West took the lead this time, Chemisette second and Farris third. They kept pretty well together up to the half post, where Farris began to lag, Queen of the West maintaining her position all the way round, coming in two lengths ahead of Chemisette and distancing Farris. Time, 2:00½.

THIRD HEAT.

Chemisette took the lead by a half length. At the first quarter Queen of the West lapped her, and at the half post passed her and galloped down the home stretch, winning the race by three lengths. Time, 2:05½.

"MORE ARMS."

The Scalawags Preparing for War.

The Weapons Brought Hither, But can Find No Man to Take Them In.

A steamer which arrived at this point during Monday night, brought down fifteen boxes of muskets, addressed to one S. Helman, who is a partner of Rosenbach's, 200 Front row. Yesterday morning the boxes were carted up to Rosenbach's who refused to receive them. They were immediately carted off in the direction of Comer & Richardson's, where it is supposed they will find a harbor and a shelter.

What do these people, now that they have elected their candidates, and already have all the places of power and emolument, want with arms. Is it that they are not satisfied, and still wish a general rising to come, and a massacre of the whites, in order that they may reap the benefits of a general confiscation? It looks very much so.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

A Man Falls Through a Hatchway and Breaks His Neck.

Effects of Somnambulism.

Yesterday morning Mr. A. S. Levy, of the firm of A. S. Levy & Co., came down to his store about half past seven o'clock, and instead of finding it open and cleaned out, as usual, at that time of day, found it shut up, and no signs of life about the place. It was usually opened and swept out early in the morning, by a Mr. J. C. Gilmore, who, with a Mr. Taylor, slept in the room, in the same building, above the store. Mr. Levy shook the front door, and failing by this means, and by hammering at the other doors and windows, to gain admittance, got a Mr. Gilbert, who formerly worked with him, and then happened to be present, to open a side window, crawl into the store, and springing the bolts, to open the front doors. Mr. Levy and Mr. Gilbert, in sweeping out, were horrified at finding directly under the hatchway the body of Mr. Gilmore, lying with his temple against the corner of a small box, and his breast directly over another projection, stone dead. His head was bruised considerably, and a cut on his forehead indicated that he had struck the side of the hatchway as he fell. Coroner Samelson was immediately sent for, and an inquest was held upon his body. At the inquest the following information was elicited: Mr. Gilmore had been told the previous evening, by Mr. Levy, to prepare certain furniture for sale the next day. He was employed in doing so during the evening, and about 9 o'clock, before he had quite finished, retired to bed, in the third story, intending to arise very early and complete the job. It is supposed that, retiring with this on his mind, he arose in his sleep, walked into the hatchway and fell.

Mr. Gilmore was about fifty years of age, a native of Baltimore, and a man of great diversity of talent. He was a good book-keeper, wrote a most beautiful hand, and was, withal, quite a mechanical genius, and was able to turn his hand to almost everything. He was a clerk in Gen. Veatch's office for awhile, and afterwards was employed in the express office. He leaves no family or relations in this city, and was buried by the charity of Messrs. A. S. Levy & Co.

THE COURTS.

LAW COURT—H. S. Lee, Judge.—The ejectment case of Ruffin vs Ferguson et al, occupied the attention of this court yesterday, and it is very likely will consume the greater portion of two more days. This case has been before the court for two entire days. The testimony for plaintiff has not yet been concluded. Messrs. Humes & Jackson appear for the plaintiff, and Messrs. Adams, Dixon & Brown for the defendants.

CHANCERY COURT.—Wm. M. Smith, Chancellor.—The following cases are on the calendar for to-day, on motions, pleas and demurrers:

Wickersham vs Blythe.
Wilson vs Stewart.
Davis vs Durant.
McBain vs Stokes.
Wilson vs Latham.
Black vs Wall.
Pannestein vs Lehman.
Mendel vs Duttiliger.

MUNICIPAL COURT—Geo. W. Waldran, Judge.—There was nothing done in this Court yesterday, on account of the extreme illness of his Honor, the Judge. We have been informed that he will be sufficiently recovered to take his seat on the bench to-day, when the same calendar of cases published for yesterday will be called for trial.

CRIMINAL COURT.—Wm. Hunter, Judge. This Court is not now in session. It is supposed that it will meet next Monday for the transaction of business, as the new courtroom will be completed by that time.

TO GERMANS.—Notices or advertisement in the German language will be received and published in this paper. A careful and competent proof-reader will see that they are printed correctly. tf

In addition to the above, I have a very large stock of Magnolias, which I can offer at greatly reduced prices, and which will be carefully packed for transportation by an experienced gardener.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL, MEMPHIS, November 10, 1868.

Exchange is abundant enough on all points, and rates are somewhat irregular just as our banks happened to be supplied. The regular rate is ⅛c discount on Eastern cities, but some of our discount houses took bills during the day at ¼c discount. Selling at par to ⅛c discount on the East, and at par to ⅛c premium on New Orleans. Cotton bills upon the latter point are taken at ⅛c discount in all cases, and are in excess of the demand.

Currency is easy enough for all legitimate purposes, and an occasional short loan is made at regular rates, but upon the streets rates of interest are very ir regular.

City Scrip is in fair demand with some increase in the demand from tax payers. This demand will grow as pay day comes around. Brokers buy at 78@80s, and sell at 84@85c.

County Warrants are active and higher. Speculators want to buy at 65@ 66c, but are unable to do so, while we heard of a sale of $2000 to a dealer at 70c. This party wanted more at the same figure. Brokers fill orders from tax payers at 70@72c, in small amounts, but no large lots could be found even at that rate.

Police Scrip is steady and scarce at 80@83c buying. Selling at 85@87c.

We know of no School Scrip on the market.

City Bonds are nominally unchanged. Held at 53s by dealers.

Gold opened in New York to-day at 134¼c, and closed at the same. We heard of a few small sales to dealers at 134c. The demand is active and is largely in excess of the offerings. Selling over the counter at 136@136¼c.

Secretary McCulloch most emphatically denies the statements made in the money articles of two or three of the New York papers, that he has been selling bonds to add to the stringency of the money market. He says that just the reverse is the case; that he has been buying bonds to loosen the market, and has, beside, issued additional three per cent. temporary loan certificates, which the Clearinghouse in New York has agreed to receive on the same footing with legal tender notes. It can be added right here that the Secretary will recommend such legislation in his forthcoming annual report, that, if enacted, will curtail the powers of the National banks, and prevent such a combination for locking up greenbacks, as just exhibited in the New York market.

COTTON.

The Liverpool market at the opening to-day was quiet with Uplands 11¼d, Orleans 11¼d, and at 1 p.m. was easier with sales of 12 000 bales, Uplands 11@11¼d, Orleans 11¼@11¾d.

The New Orleans market opened dull and nominal, Middlings 23¼c.

In New York at the opening the market was also dull and nominal, Uplands 24¼c. At noon it was unchanged, and at the close was quiet and weak, Middlings 24¼c, Orleans 25c, Low Middlings 23¼c Sales, 1000 bales.

Our market, influenced by the advices by telegraph, was quiet and weak, with quotations hard to arrive at as factors had very different views about the matter. Many sellers declared that Middlings sold during the day at 22½c, while others thought that 22½c was an outside figure. Nearly all the sales reported, however, were on a basis of 22½c, with some few at 22¾c for bright styles approaching to Strict. It would seem that buyers hold few if any orders, or they are anticipating a decline. What grounds they have for the latter we can't imagine, as the stock is not increasing as rapidly as was anticipated some weeks ago at any of the ports, while here it is very low, at less the unsold portion is very light. We quote as follows:

Ordinary	20@21
Good Ordinary	21¾@22
Low Middlings	22@22¾
Middlings	22¾@23¼
Strict Middlings	23¼@23½
Good Middlings	24 @—

TRADE.

The weather changed last night and the air was quite cool this morning. We have but little change to report in our general markets. Meats are scarce and in demand at our quotations of yesterday. Mess pork to arrive was offered at $29 50, but whether new or old the seller did not know. Eggs are dull and offered at 32@33c. Corn is not to be found, while the demand is active. Those who hold a few sacks of ear in store are asking 95c@$1 05 in a small way. Chickens are also lower; selling at $3 50@4 50, as to size.

We have to record the first shipment of goods, and their receipt in this city, via the direct trade movement of Messrs. Bayless, Everett & Co., of London and Memphis. Several samples were received to-day by Mr. Bronson Bayless, the resident member of the firm, which will be exposed to view in a day or two. The samples embrace guns, pistols, dry goods, hosiery, carpeting, wines, liquors, jewelry, queensware, etc., and merit a visit from all who are interested in the direct importation of such articles as are needed in the South. The duty is not far distant when our merchants can order their supplies direct from the European manufacturer, thereby saving to the consumer the profit which is made by the New York importer.

The races have drawn a large number of strangers to our city and our hotels are full.

The National Board of Trade will hold a meeting at Cincinnati on the 3d of December. No action has as yet been taken by our Chamber of Commerce to appoint delegates, but we learn that a called meeting will take place this week, when the question will come up.

The imports of sugar into the country during the present year have been considerably in excess of those of 1867. Of Cuba boxes, of hogsheads, and also of Brazil and Manilla bags, imports show a large increase over last year. Consumption has also been large, as the stocks on hand are scarcely greater, taken altogether, than they were at this time last year. The following table shows the imports at each port since the 1st of January, 1868, and the total for the same time in 1867. We reduce the barrels and tierces received to hogsheads:

At—	Cuba Boxes	Cuba Hhds.	Total Hhds.	Total Bags.

RIVER MATTERS.

WEATHER AND RIVERS.

MEMPHIS, November 11.—The weather was cool yesterday, and a pretty stiff wind was blowing early in the day. The river at this point is about the same as Monday, with no change in the water hence to Cairo. The Upper Mississippi is rising rapidly from late rains. The Upper Ohio is falling, but the lower end of the river is rising, with not less than five feet on the shoalest bars. The Cumberland is on a stand, with five feet large on the shoals.

Arrivals.

Steamer Mary Forsyth, St. Louis.
" Luminary, "
" Magenta, New Orleans.
" Emma No. 3, "
" Ozark, Arkansas river.

Departures.

Steamer Mary Forsyth, St. Louis.
" Emma No. 3, Cincinnati.
" Linton, Louisville.
" Luminary, Vicksburg.
" Des Arc, White river.
" Liberty, "
" Natoma, Friar's Point.
" Argos, St. Francis river.

In Port.

Empire, Sam Hale, Magenta, Agnes and Ozark.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Sam Hale, Capt. Walker will not get away until to-day as she did not complete her cargo. Ed. C. Miller is her clerk.

The Agnes has found it up-hill work getting a load. She still lies at our wharf.

The Empire, Capt. Harton, will get away to-day for Louisville and Cincinnati. She is light and will go through.

The Natoma left for Friar's Point with a splendid trip.

Capt. Lee took possession of his new purchase, the Hesper, yesterday.

Where is Houston? There are more guns in town.

Capt. J. B. Davis' new purchase—the Guiding—will be here to leave for the Arkansas river on Saturday next. She is no stranger to that stream, but has been very much improved since she last appeared in these waters. Clay Rice will command and Garrett Huls will have charge of the office.

Capt. D. DeHaven arrived yesterday from New Orleans, and leaves for Louisville to-day.

The Linton after making this trip up the Ohio will return here to ply in the Memphis and Osceola trade. Capt. Dean has chartered her. Her present master will act as clerk.

The Magenta made 73 freight and several passenger landings between Vicksburg and Memphis.

The Ruth is coming up with a big trip. The Liberty had a splendid trip for White river.

We were pleased to see Capt. Wm. Beard in the city yesterday.

Capt. Donan, formerly of the Palmer in the Arkansas river trade, has been in town some days.

The Mr. Porter, of Tennessee, who was arrested in Chicago as a Ku-Klux was not Mr. E. T. Porter of this city. The latter gentleman is in Chicago, however.

The fine steamer Olive Branch, Capt. Isaac Jones, will pass down for New Orleans to-day at 5 p m. She is an elegant passenger packet.

The Mollie Able, Capt. Duble, passes up for St. Louis to-day at 5 p.m.

The Marble City, Capt. Conway, leaves for Cairo and St. Louis to-morrow as a regular packet. She makes all connections.

The fight between the rival White Collar and Northern lines progresses fiercely upon the Upper Mississippi. The following are the prevailing rates at St. Paul: To La Crosse, in cabin, $1 50; Prairie du Chien, cabin, $2 50; Dunleith, cabin, $3 50; St. Louis, cabin, $9.

The elegant passenger packet Magenta, Capt. J. Frank Hicks, leaves today for Vicksburg, Natchez and New Orleans. The Magenta is already famous as a reliable packet, and shippers should by all means sustain her in the trade. Mr. John Sullivan, one of our well known citizens, has taken charge of the office, and will, by his long experience in the trade and tact as a businessman, soon add additional popularity to this really fine packet. His assistant, Mr. Green, is also a competent clerk. Frank Smith, as usual, is master of ceremonies.

The Ozark, Harrison Blasdell, with Ed Outlaw in the office, leaves to-morrow for all points on the Arkansas.

All boats between New Orleans and Cairo are now working under the rates established by the New Orleans Association. The new arrangement went into effect on Monday.

The J. N. McCullough, while having her boilers tested at Pittsburg, Thursday, collapsed a flue.

Messrs. Rothe & Kenleigh, of Paducah, Ky., have contracted to build a hull for the Northwestern Union, or White Collar Packet Company, the hull to be completed on or before February 15th. The dimensions are, length 235 feet, beam 37 feet, hold 5 feet.

The Des Arc did not get away until late yesterday. She injured a water wheel beam on her up trip.

We were pleased yesterday to meet Mr. A. C. Green, formerly of the B. L. Hodge. He is now clerk of the Magenta.

The Louisville Courier-Journal of Monday says: The river is still rising at this point with 6 feet 3 inches water in the canal, 3 feet 3 inches water in the chute, and 3 feet 3 inches water over the rocks last evening, a rise of 8 inches since our last report. Portland bar shows 7 feet water in the channel.

The disasters to the coal fleet have been numerous. The Hyena, with 8 barges for this market, grounded at Montgomery Island, 40 miles below Pittsburg, and lost one barge, and at last accounts had succeeded in getting one barge afloat. The Erin, for Cincinnati, lost 2 barges at Economy; the Sampson lost one barge, point not stated. The Panther and tow are hard aground at Deadman's. The J. S. Neal damaged one barge below Bullington, and the Diamond damaged one barge at Bullington. Both of them were saved. One barge was left at Pitt's Island, but by what boat is unknown.

The steamboatmen of Pittsburg are going to make a square fight against the barge line this season.

Several parties of from four to six are forming themselves into companies in St. Louis, for the purpose of bidding at the sale of the Great Republic, which takes place very soon. One man will bid seventy-five thousand dollars for her. Her cost is reported at $280,000.

WOLFE'S

Schiedam Schnapps.

THE above Medicinal Beverage is manufactured by the proprietor, at his distillery, in Schiedam, Holland, expressly for medicinal use.

It is now some twenty years since the proprietor first introduced it to the American public, and during that time he has received over three thousand letters from physicians, indorsing it as the purest liquor they have ever used in their practice.

It is made from barley of the finest quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated grain-growing districts, is flavored with the essence of the aromatic juniper-berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process which expels from the spirit every acrid particle.

As a means of preventing and correcting the disagreeable and often dangerous effect produced upon the stomach and bowels by a change of water—a visitation to which travelers, new settlers, and all unacclimated persons in the West, the South, and Southwest are peculiarly liable—the SCHIEDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS will be found absolutely invaluble; while in cases of dropsy, gravel, obstructions of the kidneys, diseases of the bladder, stricture, dyspepsia and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession.

It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases, with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac-simile of his signature on the label. For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants.
